Likes to collect:

Books, of course! I have a number of first editions that I've bought on the cheap. I also collect souvenirs from Six Flags Over Texas, mostly from the 1960s and '70s.

Favorite book:

The fantasy world of J.R.R. Tolkien's The Lord of the Rings has appealed to me for a long time; I first read it when I was in the sixth grade or so. I also love the lucid thinking in the works of his friend C.S. Lewis.

Thoughts about the library:

Some really friendly and helpful people work there!

Likes to collect:

Books

Favorite book:

Ballet Shoes by Noel Streatfield. My mother gave me a copy of Ballet Shoes when I was seven years old. It was the first work of British literature I ever read, and I loved all the descriptions of London, British food, and art. My love for British literature began with Noel Streatfield.

Thoughts about the library:

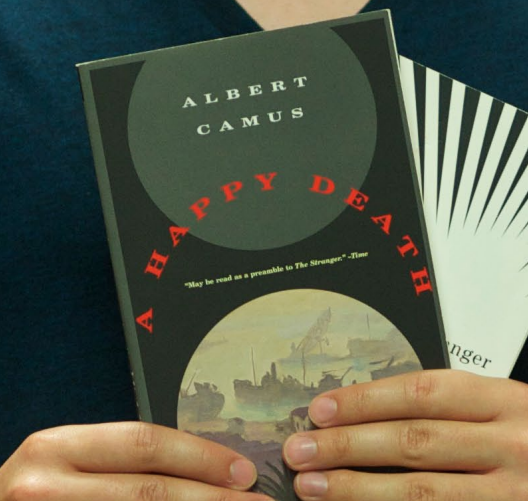

The Library is home to the greatest writers and the most wonderful stories in all of literature. It also has the most helpful and fun librarians.

Favorite word:

Awesome

I wish I knew how to:

Play guitar and drums better.

Three people I'd most like to meet:

Cassadee Pope, Franklin Roosevelt, and Dexter Morgan.

Favorite book:

The Stranger and A Happy Death by Albert Camus because of the way Camus gives the characters in both books an emotionally indifferent attitude through the stories that make both books very interesting to read.

Thoughts about the library:

UTA's Library is one of the best places to be on campus. Not only does the building accommodate a good studying atmosphere, but it also serves as a great place for people to gather and hang out.
