Conversations ‘06: Power

www.uta.edu/onebook
www.uta.edu/conversations
For the intellectually curious. . .

Conversations ’06: Power

Brown Bag Conversations
Fall 2006

Sept. 15  “Gender and Power,” Dana Dunn, Provost

Sept. 29  “From Plato to Playboy: The Evolution of Social and Political Power,” Susan Hekman, Political Science

Oct. 27  “‘Civil Disobedience’ as a Cautionary Tale: Thoreau and the Bush Administration,” Richard Bailey, English

Nov. 10  “Who’s at the Center of the Universe? – A Guided Tour,” Bob Bonadurer, Planetarium Director (Planetarium, Chemistry & Physics Building)

Alternate Fridays, noon – 1 p.m. 6th floor Library Parlor unless indicated.

www.uta.edu/onebook
www.uta.edu/conversations
THE KITE RUNNER

Conversations ’06:

Power

www.uta.edu/onebook
www.uta.edu/conversations
Alternate Fridays, noon – 1 p.m.
6th floor Central Library Parlor

Jan. 26 “Learning to Write, Writing to Learn: The Power of Education in The Kite Runner,” Jeanne Gerlach, Dean of Education

Feb. 9 “Meeting of the Minds: Nixon, Mother Teresa, and Six Other Luminaries (played by UT Arlington faculty) Talk About Power,” Moderated by Mary Lynn Crow, College of Education

Feb. 23 “Learning from the Past: Anti-Americanism and Religious Conflict during the U.S.-Mexico War,” Chris Conway, Modern Languages

Apr. 6 “Beyond The Tipping Point: Sustaining Grass Roots Movements,” Christopher Kribs-Zaleta, Mathematics

Apr. 20 “International Law: Power by Consent Only,” Charles Miller, Finance and Real Estate

May 4 “A Republic, If You Can Keep It,” Alex del Carmen, Criminology & Criminal Justice and Victoria Farrar-Myers, Political Science

www.uta.edu/onebook
www.uta.edu/conversations