

INSTALLMENTS

Informal Information from UT Arlington Libraries

Vol. 4, Issue 5, May 2016

The history of accessibility at UTA to be discussed at roundtable event

Wednesday, May 4

12-1:30 p.m.

Central Library, sixth floor Parlor

Come to the opening reception and roundtable discussion of a new exhibit at UTA: Building a Barrier-Free Campus: The History of Accessibility at UT Arlington.

The roundtable discussion will feature Wayne Duke, Laura Kelsey-Raney, John Dycus, and Mark Knoblock.

The exhibit will remain on view through summer 2016 and incorporates materials from UTA Libraries' new Texas Disability History Collection, including the dozens of oral histories collected by students in History and Disability Studies.

Spend an evening with Debra L. Winegarten

Friday, May 13

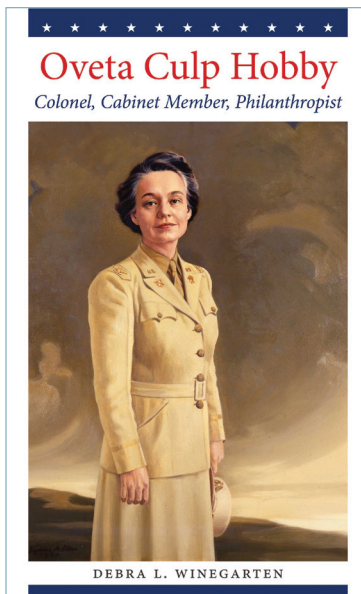

7:30 p.m.

Central Library, sixth floor Parlor

Debra L. Winegarten, author of Oveta Culp Hobby: Colonel, Cabinet Member, Philanthropist, will be sharing her thoughts on her book for the May installment of the Friends of the Library guest speaker series.

The meeting will be followed by a reception and book signing. This event is free and open to the public.

To RSVP, please call 817-272-1413 or email LibraryFriends@uta.edu.

1) Do you like to take surveys?

- No
- Sometimes
- Yes
- For $100

We need your input

Share your opinions with the UT Arlington Libraries. It's as easy as filling out a simple, anonymous, and confidential survey. In exchange for your ideas and opinions about our products and services, we are offering you a chance at winning one of five $100 prizes when you opt in to our grand prize giveaway.

Survey available at: goo.gl/MqFJ3u

Paws for Finals

May 2-6 & May 9-11
12 p.m.-2 p.m. Central Library 2nd floor

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS
ARLINGTON

LIBRARIES