PRESIDENT T. O. WALTON

Dr. T. O. Walton, President of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas, is a man who has spent his life in serving others. His work as a leader of men has stamped him as one of the outstanding men of the Southwest.

Although the students of N. T. A. C. have not had much contact with President Walton, they are able to recognize in him a man of great power.

DEAN E. E. DAVIS

Dean Davis is admired by all students for his strength of personality and his keen intellect. He is quite versatile, having had experience in farming, business, teaching, and writing. The White Scourge, a novel, and his latest publication, just came off the press this year.

The Dean's open mind and his willingness to aid students at all times make him an admirable person.

THE STUDENT-FACULTY COMMITTEE

The Student-Faculty Committee was organized in 1939 to promote friendliness and understanding between students and teachers. The committee has no authority to decide school problems, but its recommendations often influence the decisions of the executive faculty.

Five members of the committee are chosen by the student body, three are selected by a faculty committee, and one freshman is appointed by Dean Dickey after the first nine weeks of school.

This year the student-faculty presided over the election of the king and queen and made traffic laws to relieve the crowded stairs between classes. Their suggestions have influenced school activities in many ways.

Class of 1940

PRESIDENT E. L. HASKINS, a day-dodger from Dallas, is a major and commands the second batallion. He teaches fencing and takes part in all school activities . . . officer in Phi Kappa Theta . . . royal escort in the coronation. He plans to finish his B. A. course at Texas University and become a Certified Public Accountant.

SAM YOUNG, vice-president of the sophomore class, is also from Dallas . . . first lieutenant in Company E . . . vice-president of the Engineering Society . . . member of Officers Club . . . Bull Pen . . . interested in all kinds of sports . . . picked by student body as an escort in the coronation.

NANCELIE UTT, the vivacious, darkeyed sophomore from Dallas, was elected Secretary-Treasurer of her class. She is an officer in the Sans Souci Club, college favorite, duchess in the coronation . . . likes tennis and swimming.

WHO'S WHO

Mary Lee Kemp Journalism

Mack Clarke
Business Administration

Vola Gribble Music

Sport...

An Arlington girl is Norma Alice Adams. She is an art major and the student assistant in the art department. Her ambition is to be a really good commercial artist, and she is well on the road to success. She is a grand sport, making good in anything she tries; is outstanding in tennis and fencing and is on the fencing team. This smiling, friendly brunette is a member of the Art Guild and a charter member of the S. O. S. Club.

Editor ...

Red headed editor of the Shorthorn, Mary Lee Kemp is a sophomore from Fort Worth. She is ambitious to become a successful writer and plans to enter some phase of professional journalism after graduating from Texas University. Her fondness for working crossword puzzles (indicative of an intellectual nature) is a well known fact around the Shorthorn office. A charter member of the S. O. S., she belongs to the Home Economics and Press Clubs. She loves green hats, perhaps because they bring out the sparkle in her green eyes.

Accountant...

A B. A. major and driver of a buggy called "Junior" from Fort Worth. As Business Manager of the Junior Aggie and Secretary-Treasurer of the B. A. Club, he boosts the Business Administration Department one hundred per cent. Likes sports, dances smoothly, and keeps freshmen busy polishing his shoes. He is a Phi Kappa Theta who aspires to be a Certified Public Accountant.

Contralto...

Vola Gribble, blue-eyed contralto from Dallas, is soloist in the Oak Cliff Methodist Church choir. She also directs a junior choir in that church. At N. T. A. C. she is heard often on Fine Arts programs. She sang the contralto part in "The Seven Last Words of Christ," and played the part of Fritzi Kranz in the spring operetta, "Blossom Time." Teaching music in Dallas takes up her hours away from school and a regular music course.

WHO'S WHO

Dick English
Pre-Medical

Nona Joyce Elkins

Education

Don Cain Pre-Law

Judy Galloway

Home Economics

Industrious...

Dick English is a pre-med, who, if hard work and earnestness mean anything, will go far in the field of surgery. At night and on Sundays he works at the Terrell laboratories where he gets good practice. His favorite sport is tennis, although he seldom has time to enjoy it; his favorite food is steak, which he gets around to quite often; and his favorite study bacteriology where he shines.

Teacher...

The coming generation will look forward to history class if this outstanding coed carries out her plan to teach. Her co-workers in the education department, where she is student-assistant, say she's stubborn—but her smile belies this claim. As a hobby she collects glass slippers, plays ping pong and tennis. A Phi Kappa Theta and a Zangola, her favorite subject is Education. She wants to teach either history or English—but we've heard that she's learning to cook, so we're making no definite prophecies.

Ambitious...

Crinkly black hair and that school-girl's complexion, a diamond on each shoulder, and a winning personality are among Don Cain's assets . . . President of the I. R. C. and member of the Aggie Bar, Don was one of the principal speakers at the Southwestern I. R. C. Convention held in Fayetteville, Arkansas, in March. Phi Kappa Theta, Officer, member of the Student-Faculty Committee and B. A. Club, he was elected royal escort in the coronation.

Petite...

Judy Galloway is the favorite around the Home Economics Department. She is student assistant in the Home Economics Department and secretary-treasurer of the Home Economics Club. Her ambition is to be an interior decorator of beautiful homes and her favorite subjects are interior decorating and advanced nutrition. This tiny, brown-headed Avolonte with her winning smile has won many friends on the campus.

WHO'S WHO

Bill Weaver Speech

Catharine Greever Physical Education

George Sumner
Technical Engineering

Harold Hansen Industrial Engineering

Second-Generation Aggie ...

Majoring in agricultural education, Oliver Meadows is president of the Collegiate Chapter of the F. F. A. He plans to teach vocational agriculture after graduating from A. & M. He milks cows and does other chores at the college farm where he stays . . . His father and mother were both students at N. T. A. C., which makes him one of the few second-generation Aggies. He is platoon sergeant for Company D, and a member of the Non-Com Club.

Versatile...

Bill Weaver is a speech major whose interest lies in both radio and stage acting. His excellent portrayals of different types of characters in Little Theater productions have proved his ability as an actor. His numerous sidelines include playing piano and clarinet, tap-dancing, and writing poetry. Bill stays on the campus in Davis Hall where he is known for his subtle wit and surprising sense of humor. He plans to go to the Pasadena Playhouse next year.

Racqueteer...

Catharine Greever can generally be found on the tennis courts where she teaches tennis . . . whamming a tennis ball around is what she really likes to do, which may be one reason her hobby of collecting tennis trophies is so well-advanced. She is a brunette Sans Souci from Fort Worth who likes chocolate ice cream. All outdoor sports appeal to her. She plans to finish her physical education course at N. T. S. T. C. in Denton.

Smarty..

George Sumner is an 18-year-old sophomore from Fort Worth who is majoring in technical electrical engineering . . . Phi Kappa Theta, Engineer, and Non-Com . . . Secretary of the Radio Club, George numbers going to its Owl Parties, building radios and contacting other radio "hams" among his major diversions from a 21-hour course and a 15-hour working week. A modest, unassuming sort of fellow, he wrinkles up his eyes when he smiles, which is often.

Quiet-Voiced...

From Weslaco comes Harold Hansen, industrial electrical engineer. He is 23 years old and likes surf-fishing, horses and electrical A. C. theory. He plans seeing South America as an electrical transmission engineer for an oil company after being graduated from N. T. A. C. His Mexican lingo comes forth naturally and with ease, which may aid him in S. A.

Can't you just smell the garlic?

Mixer

Freshman blows a hot trumpet

Before you went to the dance you had your garlic, or, if you were a senior, you carried some in your pocket.

You could smell it in the Alley. You were so excited at meeting new people. You ran around with your little notebook and pencil, calling people "Fish" and "Sir." You danced with dozens of friendly people. Maybe you met the "one and only."

Everybody was still crazy about "Well, All Right" and "Sunrise Serenade." Everybody was talking about Colonel Mims and Cowboy Thompson, and whether or not we would beat John Tarleton this year. Everybody was sad when we sang "My Buddy" for Pluto Garrett.

After it was all over and the green ribbons were put away, the seniors decided—as they do every year—that it was more painful to SMELL the garlic than to eat it and the freshmen looked forward to next year.

The pause that refreshes

Enthusiastic Aggies

Corps Trip

With your cherished ticket clutched in your hand, you got on the bus. There was the superior thrill of saying goodbye to those who weren't going. There was the little tingle of uncertainty about whom you would see all the way to Kilgore and back.

You were so proud of the band and the splendid (well, they looked splendid then, didn't they; and will again, mark my word) uniforms of the boys. You were proud of the team, too, and called as many of the football boys by name as you could. You yelled tremendously and probably froze the rest of the time.

When you got home you were so sleepy you didn't care who did what, but the next day you did.

The Christmas Corps Dance in the gym

Corps Dance

The Ambassadors

Brilliant evening gowns . . . flowers and perfume and occasionally stardust in soft hair . . . number one uniforms . . . the receiving line which made you feel terribly important . . . remember your first corps dance?

That was glamour, wasn't it?

And they never lose that magic, somehow.

In the Fall there was "Moonlight Serenade," and a little later "My Prayer." Then there was "Careless," to say nothing of "Jumpin' Jive" and "Put Your Little Foot."

And when silver taps was played—well, everything was almost too beautiful. Then after "Goodnight Sweetheart" you looked across the dark campus and wondered what people did who never went to N. T. A. C. . . . didn't you?

Coronation

The Queen . . . bless her!

The weeks of rivalry are forgotten in the first white blaze of light and the first fanfare.

With the rest of the world in such a turmoil we were presented this year with "Peace in Pan America" and Mona Belle Montgomery was crowned "Queen of Good-Will" by Senator Jesse Martin. Our coronation embodied the ideals and joys of Americans.

It really was quite stately with each duchess and her escort representing one of the twenty-two countries in Pan-America, coming so slowly down the aisle, the guard of honor escorting King Con Mims to the throne in military precision, the stirring music, the flags.

And then the Queen of Good-Will, herself.

Nothing quite like our coronations, is there?

Sunday Parade

At 1:30 the stream of cars was already headed toward the football field. Gay new hats and dresses were sitting all over the bleachers.

Everyone watched the street on the left of the Music Hall for the first gleam of brass. Strangers in uniform had been walking over to the reviewing stand for an hour.

When they came on the field, everyone was excited. "Which platoon did you say? . . . His company is the nicest looking one of all." And when they passed in review every boy knew that there was one girl who was palpitating just for him and whispering, "See, there he is!"

MAJOR MAX G. OLIVER

Major Oliver became commandant and P. M. S. and T. last year. He has organized the corps into an efficient and self-sustaining unit. He has combined military and scholastic achievement as a standard for promotions in the corps, resulting in keener competition among the students. He has contributed generously to the promotion of school spirit on the campus. He is always present at school functions, enthusiastically supporting athletics and social activities throughout the year. His work in promoting a spirit of co-operation between freshmen and upper-classmen, along with his inimitable use of the word "Lad" will be long remembered by those of us who leave N-Tac's hallowed halls.

Colonel Con Mims Regimental Commander

COLONEL CON MIMS

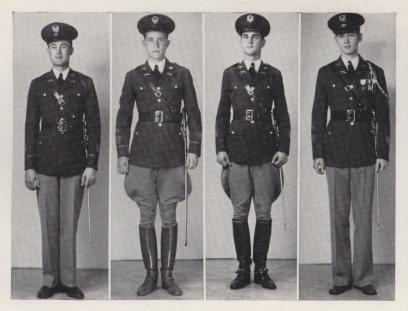

Con came to N. T. A. C. from Laredo, Texas. His associations in this border town bring forth the bursts of Spanish dialect which he often emits during trying circumstances. He is the youngest Colonel to grace the portals of N. T. A. C. He entered in the fall of 1937 at the age of 16, with no previous military training. His military bearing won him a place in the Sam Houston Rifles before the end of the year, and three months later he was made a second lieutenant and commander of Company "C" which is made up of the cadets of Davis Hall. Before the end of last year, he was promoted to the rank of Cadet Major and assigned to the Regimental Staff, and at the final parade was awarded his colonel's commission. This is a record unequaled by any previous cadet officer, and bespeaks the efficiency with which he and his staff have operated this year.

LIEUTENANT-COLONEL NICKEY NAUMOVICH

Nickey is a graduate of Dallas Tech where he was regimental commander. He entered N. T. A. C. in the fall of '38 and assumed the duties of a cadet sergeant and platoon guide. His proficient drill earned for him a place in the crack platoon, and later the title of "Best Drilled Cadet" in the spring company competition. In the fall of '39 he was promoted to the rank of Cadet Captain and Regimental executive officer. Commendable grades and efficient work earned for him two successive promotions and his present rank of Lieutenant-Colonel.

The North Texas Aggies' football season was not so successful as that of last year, but the team managed to break even, winning five games and losing five.

The football season came to a disappointing climax on a muddy Thanksgiving day, when the John Tarleton Plowboys eked out a 6-0 win over the Aggies.

Coach "Klepto" Holmes' charges received only one decisive defeat during the entire season, that being a 23-0 shellacking at the hands of the Kilgore Rangers, champions of the newly formed Texas Junior College Conference.

In the opinion of the coaches the season was very successful, for quite a few new men had to fill the places left vacant from last season's conference championship team.

To the unsung heroes of the team, the linemen, should be given much credit for the success of the 1939 football team. The boys who composed the starting lineup, and their substitutes made large holes in the enemy line, and also broke through the line many times to nail the charging runner for a loss. All of the boys who played in the forward wall did very fine playing.

One hundred and forty-five men reported to Coaches Holmes and Dunsworth at the beginning of the season. Most notable among the freshmen in camp were: Buford Hudgins, ex-Masonic Home star who filled the shoes and took the number of last season's star, Frito Gonzales; Billy Chesser, fancy stepping broken-field runner from Lockhart; and Bill Abernathy, punting star, who transferred from Texas Tech.

The Cadets lose seven of their first string men, including Co-Captains Everett Whatley and Joe Stroop, who have completed their three years of eligibility. Four squadmen also have completed their eligibility. Out of a squad of thirty-seven men who completed the season, eighteen of them received letters.

WESTMINSTER GAME

The Aggies opened their 1939 football season on their home field by handing Westminster Junior College of Tehuacana a 13 to 0 defeat. Buford

"Coon-dog" takes off

Hudgins led the Aggies to victory by crashing over the goal for both scores. Joe Stroop, who was the leader of the Cadets on the defense, started his third year under the Blue and White. A large squad of freshmen put on a fine exhibition in their first college game. Most noticeable among the freshmen were Billy Chesser and Kenneth Kinslow, who played in the Aggie backfield.

N. T. S. T. C. "B"

The North Texas State Teachers' College Eagles, after a standstill during the first half, ran through and passed over the Cadets with a 19 to 6 victory. Ross Gammon was the star of the evening for the Aggies. His accurate passes to both Buford Hudgins and Harold "Coon-dog" Teubner were the main offensive weapons of the Cadets. Bill Abernathy set the Eagles back deep in their own territory many times with his long accurate punts.

PARIS GAME

The Aggies journeyed to Paris for their first out of town game. The climate or conditions must not have satisfied them, for when the final gun had gone off, the Cadets had lost their first game of the season by the very short margin of 7 to 6. Jake Blend, all-conference center from Dallas, led the Cadets on the defense. His uncanny ability to tell which way the play was going helped to keep the score down. Ross Gammon was again the star for the Aggies with his long accurate passes to Harold Teubner. Dan Collie, at his blocking back position, also helped keep the score down by taking out the defensive man so that the runner could get through for long gains. Albert Clark, Harry Moore, and Jack Smith nailed Dragon runners for long losses many times during the game.

NORTHEASTERN OKLAHOMA GAME

The Cadets evened up their percentage column with a 7 to 6 win over the visiting Northeastern Oklahoma Junior College of Miami, Oklahoma. Abe Croft, field-goal expert from Houston, gets much of the credit for this win, for it was his "educated toe" that kicked the field goal after Harold Teubner had caught a pass for the Aggies' lone tally. Croft had failed earlier in the game on a twenty-one yard attempt for a field-goal. Though the Aggies were out-played during most of the game, they capitalized on the breaks, and were able to stop the fleet-footed Norsemen when the time came to do so. The Norsemen gained an early lead, when they recovered a fumble on the first play of the game, and marched straight to a touchdown. It was not until midway in the second period that the Aggies were able to push over their lone tally.

WEATHERFORD GAME

A passing duel between Abernathy, Hudgins, and Gammon of the Aggies and Porter of the Coyotes resulted in the Cadets winning another Texas Junior College Conference game. This time by the score of 26 to 14. A stronger offensive game put the game on ice for the Aggies after they had been tied once and behind once during the game. The game was won when Gammon passed to Harold Teubner, rangy Cadet end, for a touchdown. The Coyotes threatened the goal line many times, but the Cadets' defense tightened up each time, and held the Coyotes to only two touchdowns. The Cadets showed much improvement over previous games, and were finally able to work plays as they should.

KILGORE GAME

A large group of Aggie boosters on the yearly Corps trip did not help the Cadets much, for the Kilgore Rangers went out on a raid, and got a 23 to 0 victory. The score indicates that the game was very one-sided, and it was just that. When the Cadets did get the ball, it would be so deep in their own territory that no matter how many yards they made, it was never enough to go over the goal-line of the Rangers. Midway in the third quarter, the Aggies lost one of the best freshman back-field men ever to play football for the Aggies. It was Ross Gammon, who was taken out of the game with a serious back injury. After his removal, the Cadets' defense bogged down completely. All of the Rangers' many tricky plays seemed to click with the greatest of ease. It was a case of tricky deception over straight power plays that spelled the difference in the game.

DECATUR GAME

The Blue and White played host to the Black and Gold of Decatur Baptist College, and whitewashed them 12 to 0. Bill Abernathy stepped into the passing shoes left vacant by Ross Gammon and led the Aggies to victory on a very muddy field. Abernathy made both the Cadet scores with wide runs around the ends. His punts kept the ball deep in the Indian end of the field. The Aggies scored in the first period, after a series of passing and running plays put the ball deep in Baptist territory. Abernathy scatted around right end for ten yards and the Cadets' first touchdown. Late in the second quarter, Abernathy again scored. This time it was around left end for twelve yards. This ended the scoring, but the game was not over. Coach Holmes sent in his second and third strings shortly after the second half opened. The substitutes drove down to the Baptist two yard line late in the third period, but failed to push over another score. The remainder of the game was played on even terms with neither team making a serious scoring threat.

LAMAR GAME

Bill Gerner deserves credit for his "educated toe" stunt that won a hard fought 7 to 6 victory over the Lamar Junior College Cardinals in Beaumont on a muddy and sloppy field. Bill moved the ball to a dry place on the field before he would attempt the kick. Though it was at a difficult angle, the ball went squarely between the uprights. Joe Stroop took the ball over for the lone Cadet tally on four successive plays over center from the Cardinals' fifteen yard line. Another Bill, Bill Abernathy, also had much to do with the victory. His long punts on the slippery field kept the Cardinals in their own end of the field, except when they marched twenty-six yards for a touchdown after intercepting one of Joe Stroop's passes. Jake Blend, Harold Teubner, and Jack Smith turned in their usual fine games at their positions. The Aggies outplayed the Cardinals during all of the game, holding them to only three first downs while they were getting ten.

HILLSBORO GAME

The Aggies hit the road again, this time going South to Hillsboro Junior College, where the Indians handed them a 12 to 7 defeat. The Ags had six chances to score, and were able to capitalize on only one of them. The Cadets ran through the Indian forward like water through a sieve. The Aggies pushed the Hillsboro boys all over the gridiron, but could not get that added punch that wins the games. Buford Hudgins, little 150 pound Aggie back, was the best ball player on the field. He put on a very fine exhibition of broken-field running and field generalship. Dan Collie, one of the starting backfield men, played a very fine game at his blocking back position. He fooled the opposition on one play, and caught a pass and gained nineteen yards on the play. The Aggies had a win over the Indians until the last minute and a half of play, when Calloway, Indian back, threw one of those "throw and pray" passes which landed in the arms of an Indian who was over the goal-line, making the clincher touchdown.

These three Aggie mentors look worried

TARLETON GAME

The friendly rivalry between the Aggies and Plowboys flared up again in the football game, and the Plowboys finished a perfect season by defeating the Aggies 6 to 0 on a muddy, rainy Thanksgiving day. The Plowboys' touchdown came early in the game, when they recovered a fumble deep in Aggie territory. It took wriggling Willard Woolverton, all-conference Plowboy back, only three plays to go over the goal line. Buford Hudgins made many of the fans stand up when he broke loose for long gains, only to fail to score because of the slippery field. The field was so muddy that the ball and the hands of the players had to be wiped off after each play.

Woolverton was injured in the second period, and was not able to return to the game, but Lockhart, a speedy back, filled his place and did a fine job of field generalship. The Aggie linemen, Teubner, Waller, Whatley, Smith, Moore, and Clark kept the Plowboy fans scared, when they would break through and nail the runners for a loss. The game was played on even terms, except for the one occasion when the Plowboys scored. The coaches of both of the teams said that it was one of the tightest ball games that they had ever witnessed.

The gun at the end of the game closed another football season at N. T. A. C., and the hopes and prospects are brighter for the next season than in many years.

Norris outjumps the Plowboy

The North Texas Aggie's basketball squad came through the 1940 season of competition in the Texas Junior College Conference with eleven wins in sixteen contests. The team was led by three letterman, Nabors, Norris, and Huddleston, of the 1939 team. Many outstanding freshmen, including Jones, Smith, Metzler, Weaver, H. Seay, Simpson, Gathings, and W. Seay added much power to the Cadet's scoring power.

With the exception of two stinging defeats at the hands of Tarleton, the season was fairly successful. Tarleton, later crowned champions of the conference, beat the Cadets 60 to 16 at the first meeting and came back to the Aggies' court to defeat them 50 to 15.

Fred Nabors was the high point man of the squad with 169 points. He led the team in scoring in all but four of the games, and was easily the outstanding player on the team. His fine ball handling and defensive work were the main part of the Aggies' attack.

Little Max Gathings was another strong cog in the Aggies' attack. He is small and fast, and is able to get around his opponent easily. He was high-point man in two games, and was always a steady, smooth ballplayer. Fred Norris, tall red-headed center, was probably the best defensive player on the team. In all of the games he held his man to very few points, and was always able to make a few points himself. He scored 115 points during the full season.

This was the first time in many seasons that the team has not had at least five practice games before the conference competition started. T. W. C. was the Cadets' opponent in three games before the first scheduled game against Weatherford, and walked away with each game.

The first game was played in Weatherford, with Weatherford Junior College furnishing the opposition. The Aggies won the game easily 39 to 26, and were never threatened. Nabors was high point man with 19 points.

The Hillsboro Indians were the opposition for the first home game of the year. The Aggies had a hard time nosing out the Indians 23 to 20. The game was a nip and tuck affair with the lead changing many times. Nabors, with 10 points, was again high point man.

The S. M. U. Freshmen handed the Aggies their first defeat of the season, 43 to 18. The Colts took an early lead, and were never threatened. Norris was high point man with 7 points.

The Aggies journeyed to Wichita Falls to play Hardin Junior College, and beat them 35 to 28. The Hardin team led until the final quarter, but the Cadets put on the heat, and overcame the lead. Nabors was again high point man with 11 points.

The Decatur Baptists handed the Aggies their first conference defeat, 26 to 21. The Aggies led all during the first half, but the Baptists forged ahead in the third quarter, and stayed there. Norris was high point man with 6 points.

The Aggies played a non-conference game against the Diamond Hill Baptists of Fort Worth, and beat them 50 to 25. The Aggies' height was a big advantage over the Baptists who could not get through the Cadet defense. Nabors scored 21 points.

In a return game with Hardin on the Aggie court, the Cadets won 35 to 22. The Aggies started off fast, and never did stop. They led 22 to 9 at the half. Nabors was high with 15 points.

The Plowboys of John Tarleton handed the Aggies their most decisive defeat of the year. That being a 60 to 16 slaughter, which eliminated the Aggies from the conference championship race. The height and experience of the Farmers gave them a great advantage in the game, and their defense was so tight that it could hardly be penetrated. Nabors was high for the Aggies with 8 points.

The Decatur Baptists again defeated the Aggies, this time 38 to 25 on the Aggies' court. The Baptists jumped to an early lead, and were leading 21 to 12 at the half. Huddleston was high point man for the Aggies with 7 points.

The game between the Aggies and the visiting Temple Junior College team started off very slowly, but the Aggies finally won the game 39 to 14. Five and half minutes passed in the first quarter before either team scored. The Aggies led 14 to 4 at the half. Nabors was high point man of the game with 13 points.

The Cadets defeated Gainesville Junior College 42 to 31 in the first athletic meeting between the two schools. The first half of the game was tight, but the Aggies forged ahead in the third quarter and stayed there. Norris was high point man the Aggies with 14 points.

The Cadets traveled to Hillsboro for a return game with the Indians, and beat them 41 to 31. The first three quarters of the game were tight with the lead changing hands many times. The Aggies turned on the heat in the final stanza and won easily. Nabors was high point man with 20 points.

Max Gathings was the big shot for the Aggies in defeating Weatherford Junior College 41 to 31. He scored 15 points in the game, and was nearly perfect on the defense, allowing his man only one field goal. The Aggies led 14 to 13 at the half.

The Aggies stretched their consecutive victory string to five when they defeated San Angelo Junior College by the score of 42 to 35. San Angelo took the lead, and was leading at the half 22 to 21. Norris was high point man for the Aggies with 12 points.

John Tarleton's Plowboys again proved that they were the team to beat for the championship, when they again ran over the Aggies, defeating them 50 to 15. The same story could be told over again, for the experience and the perfect defensive work of the Plowboys kept the Cadets from seeing the goal. Little Max Gathings was the only Aggie able to do anything, and he scored 9 points to be high point man for the Cadets.

The final game of the 1940 season found the Aggies mad and ready to take on all comers after the two stinging defeats from Tarleton, and they took out their revenge on Gainesville Junior College by defeating them 53 to 19. The Cadets started off at the first whistle, and didn't stop scoring until the final gun had brought down the curtain on another basketball season. Nabors finished his second year for the Aggies by being high point man of the game with 12 points.

MINOR SPORTS

FENCING TEAM

Coach Haskins, Simmons, McBride, Thornton, Martin, Dyer, Maloney, Person, Smith, Adams, Holcomb

FENCING

The Aggie fencing team, coached by E. L. Haskins, went to the semi-finals in the Southwestern Fencing meet in Dallas on May 31. Haskins won third place on the tournament team. Glenn Simmons was also one of the strong fighters on the team. The team had many freshmen who helped the team to go as far as they did in the conference race.

TRACK

The Cadet tracksters entered the annual Southwestern Exposition Track and Field meet in Fort Worth and the triangular meet held in Denton, and placed fourth and third in them. Freshman Robert Jones surprised every one at the Denton meet when he threw the discus 131 feet 6 inches for first place. Oscar Elam won first place in the broad jump at Denton, jumping 22 feet 6 inches. Other men on the track squad were: Hudgins, Stroop, Huddleston, Hardie, Hood, Clark, Collier, Stallings, Tegge, and Croft.

GOLF

Jimmy Whitcher of Dallas was the number one golf player of the school. He held many titles in Dallas high school competition before entering college at mid-term. Pat Rauschelbach and Dan McCammon, both lettermen from the 1939 team, held the number two and three position. Lawrence Walker and Claude Nichols rounded out the Aggie golf squad which played host to the T. J. C. C. golfers in their state meet.

1939 tennis stars

TENNIS

Tennis was one of the most popular of the minor sports during the year. Eddie Vickery won the intramural singles championship, with A. C. Graf in second place. Vickery and Graf also held the number one and two positions on the tennis squad. Bobby Hackney, the only returning letterman from the 1939 team, was third man on the team, with Homer Swindler and Fred Middleton rounding out the squad. The team lost its first match to E. T. S. T. C. 4 to 3, and later tied the N. T. S. T. C. "B" team 3-3.

BOXING

The annual intramural fite nite program brought out many boys who have possibilities as fighters. The most promising of them was Leonard Durrett, who won the middle-weight crown. S. L. Cross, bantam-weight, James Berry, feather-weight, and

Boxers Durrett and Kramig

Jack Smith, heavy-weight, also won the title in their weights. Other fighters who made fine showings were: "Pooky" Shrader, George Kramig, Tommy Elder, Ralph Carter, Otis Wyatt, and Bill Hise.

OTHER SPORTS

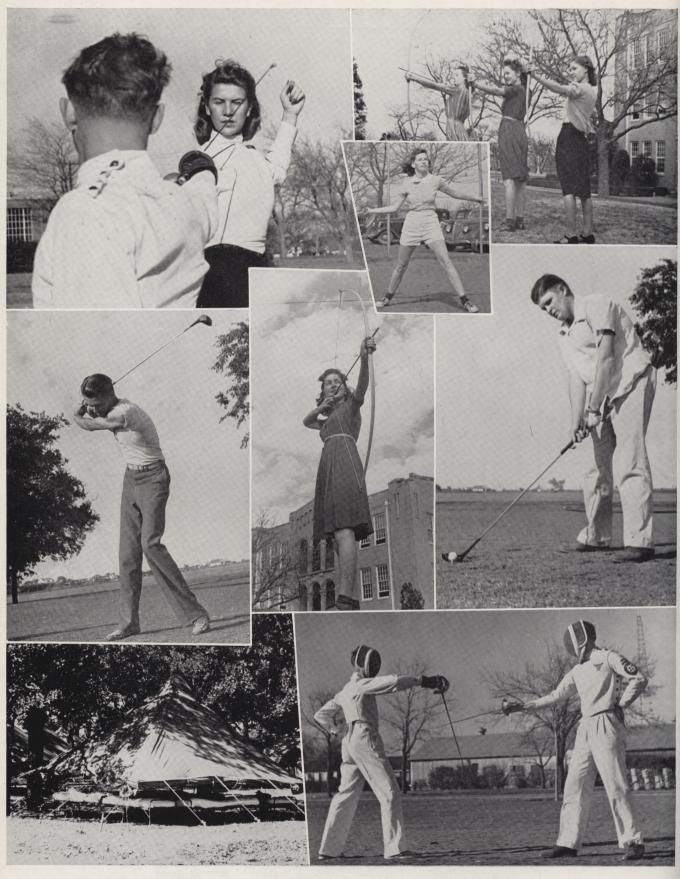

Company D won the intramural volleyball championship over Company B. Badminton, a new sport on the campus, had its share of interest with the students. The Athletic Department made badminton an intramural sport, and started a contest.

Ping pong was another popular indoor sport. Most of the girls' gym classes played this, and many of the boys played between classes.

The baseball team, led by its pitcher and captain, Leonard Durrett, won all of its exhibition games.

The 1940 Junior Aggie, rather surprisingly, finally comes out. The pride and joy of this edition is the four-color kodachrome picture on the title page—the very first to adorn a Junior Aggie. The book has many other interesting features, but the staff will leave the reader to find those for himself.

We can truthfully say that we are proud of this yearbook, for like any doting parent, we love it not only in spite of, but because of its faults. If it can bring back to the reader some of the thrills of college days, then we will be pleased. We present it to the student body of 1940 with the hope that it comes up to all your expectations.

Pi Mu was organized in 1927 for pre-medical students, with its purpose the advancement of medicine as a science and a profession.

In the fall of this year, there was an informal initiation of new members; in the spring there was a dinner at El Fenix and a dance at Lee Memorial in Dallas. The members enjoyed a dance given by the Xi chapter of the Phi Chi Fraternity of Baylor Medical College at the Crystal Ballroom of the Baker Hotel, Dallas.

Meetings were held usually at night. Dr. J. J. Andujar, Dr. William Swift, and Dr. J. W. Lyle, prominent physicians of Fort Worth and Dallas, spoke to the group. Dr. Swift was especially interesting to the club, because he is a former N. T. A. C. premedical student.

Club members made field trips to the Methodist Memorial Hospital in Fort Worth and to Baylor Medical School in Dallas.

The students of N. T. A. C. who are chosen as officers are responsible for maintaining the discipline, character, and loyalty of the cadets and, in turn, the excellent cadet corps that N. T. A. C. is recognized by the War Department as possessing. Each cadet officer becomes a member upon his acceptance of his commission as an officer.

The main purpose of the club is that of creating more complete cooperation and loyalty and a closer friendship among the officers. Sans Souci is a French expression meaning "without a care." The club was organized for social purposes.

A formal tea for freshman girls was given in the fall at Miss Zelda Ramsey's home. This was followed by the informal initiation at Lake Worth. They gave a "Little Abner" costume dance, a Christmas party, and a bicycle party.

Their last dance of the school year was a springtime formal, decorated with spring flowers. Rainbows with pots of gold at each end made a colorful canopy for the dance.

Taking their name from a French idiom meaning pleasure with direction, the Avolonte Club, organized in 1922, ranks as the oldest girls' social organization on the campus. The club motto is "Happiness for All" and the club colors are green and gold.

Their activities this year began with the Freshman Tea given at the home of Mrs. B. C. Barnes. Closely following this was the informal initiation at Roach's Camp on Lake Worth. The fall informal was a gypsy dance with campfire, fortune-tellers and all. Gifts were exchanged at their traditional Christmas party.

The main social event of the spring was the formal dance given April 12 "In Cherry Blossom Land." A beautiful Japanese stage setting was arranged with a fountain of running water, surrounded by roses. Walls lined with cherry trees, and Japanese lanterns completed a perfect Oriental setting. Phil Baxter's orchestra played for the dance.

The outstanding social events for this year have been the formal tea for the freshmen girls, the initiation dinner held at the Italian Village in Dallas, a Christmas luncheon at the Baker Hotel in Dallas, the informal carnival dance, and the spring formal, May 4, which was a "Sweetheart Dance."

La Docena is a club for girls who like to have good times. "La Docenas have more fun than rabbits" is the unofficial motto of the club.

The club was organized in November, 1927, by the twelve charter members who gave the club its name, La Docena, Spanish meaning, "The Dozen."

At the beginning of the school year a tea for new freshmen girls was given at Mrs. J. B. Preston's home. Formal initiation was held after a Mexican dinner, given by old members for newly-elected pledges at Chapultepec in Dallas. In December, the club staged its traditional kid dance, complete with May pole and miniature zoo. A Christmas party was given at Mrs. C. C. Mason's home.

Twenty-two new members joined during the second semester, and a similar dinner was given for them at Cliff Towers in Dallas.

In the spring, the club gave its annual formal, with Ed Daniels' orchestra playing for dancing on a "Summer Night."

The ten charter members are: Norma Alice Adams, Florence Chambers, Mildred Cross, Mary Lee Kemp, Bernadine Lahey, Dortha Mahan, Cleo Martin, Anna Jo Robertson, Lucy Rydell, and Maxine Walton.

They started their social season with a formal tea given for the freshman girls at the home of Mrs. B. C. Barnes on October 6. Formal initiation of the new members was a candlelight ceremony at a formal dinner party followed by a real "get-together" slumber party at the home of Mrs. Ervell Cross. The club members and their dates enjoyed informal dances at the homes of the members in November and January. The informal "Shipwreck Dance" was given December 17 in the gym.

The spring formal was held April 27.

Editorial

The Editor and Business Manager of this publication, the Junior Aggie, are proud to present to you what they consider one of the outstanding yearbooks in the history of the school.

This book has cost considerably more than the amount which the student body has paid for its publication. The remaining portion of the total cost is made up by the concerns which carry advertising on the following pages. They are interested in N. T. A. C., they are interested in you—they have shown their loyalty to the school, thus making it possible for the first time in the history of the Junior Aggie to have a full-page color photograph.

The least you can do is to give them full consideration in your buying. Show your appreciation of this 1940 edition of the Junior Aggie by trading with the firms that made it possible. They are worthy of your patronage, for they are truly your friends.

"What's he been doing now?"

"Why, this morning he thought he'd left his watch at home, and then took it out to see if he had time to go back and get it."

"That isn't as bad as the time when he left his office and put out a card saying he'd be back at 3 o'clock. Finding he'd forgotten something, he went back to his office, read the notice on the door, and sat down on the stairs to wait until 3 o'clock."

Accordingly, she leaned over and whispered: "Parden me, are you alone?" The meek little man gave no sign of having heard, so she repeated her question a little louder. Still no answer and she tried again. At that the little man turned slightly toward her and keeping his eyes on the stage. "Cut it out," he whispered, "My whole darn family's here."

RYE IN RHYME

The horse and mule live thirty years And nothing know of wives and beers. The goat and sheep at thirty die And never taste of Scotch and rye. The cow drinks water by the ton And at eighteen is mostly done. The dog at fifteen cashes in Without the aid of rum and gin. The cat in milk and water soaks And then in twelve short years it croaks. The modest, sober, bone dry hen Lays eggs for nogs then dies at ten. All animals are strictly dry. They sinless live and swiftly die. But sinful, ginful, rumsoaked men Survive for three score years and ten. And some of us, the mighty few, Stay pickled 'til we're ninety-two.

"How long have you been working for this road?" the official inquired.

"Forty-two years," was the reply.

"How much do you make?" "Forty cents an hour."

The vice-president marveled. Indeed, the incident so preyed on his mind that at the next board meeting he suggested something be done for the employee who had labored 42 years at 40 cents an hour.

"We'll retire him," said the chairman. So the employee was honored by being invited to appear before the board. He received a substantial check and, while fingering it uncertainly, the president sought to relieve him by asking:

"By the way, what is your job with our line?"

"I go around the yard hitting the wheels with a hammer."

"And what did you do that for?" asked the president beamingly.

"I'm sure I don't know."

A compuncher ordered a steak at a restaurant. The waiter brought it in rare—very rare. The puncher looked at it and demanded that it be returned to the kitchen and cooked.

"Tis cooked," snapped the waiter.

"Tain't," returned the puncher, "I've seen cows hurt worse than that and get well."

"What's your name?" the store manager asked Henry Ford, who was applying for a job.

"Ford," he replied.

"And your first name?"

"Henry."

"Henry Ford, eh?" remarked the manager with a smile. "That's a pretty well-known name."

The boy looked pleased.

"Yes, sir, it ought to be," he replied proudly. "I've been delivering groceries around here for two years now."

YOUTH MUST BE SERVED

Your college recognizes that the development of a strong, healthy body is as all important as is the development of a keen, well trained mind; and realizes that both can best be developed through the proper training diet. It is, therefore, performing a two-fold duty by providing a properly balanced diet, with an abundance of fresh fruits and fresh vegetables that are truly fresh.

Of the building and protective foods, fresh fruits and vegetables come first; needed for their minerals, vitamins, bulk and alkaline products, they provide wholesome energy, develop strong teeth and muscles which make for speed and endurance.

We have served the youth of Texas for more than a third of a century with fresh fruits and vegetables which keep the body vigorous, the mind alert and muscles strong. And we expect to serve the youth of tomorrow, just as we served the youth of yesterday and are serving the youth of today, with the finest and most healthful fruits and vegetables.

Texas has demonstrated its readiness to adapt modern ideas to agriculture as fast as practical experience and research indicate new practices to be feasible. The majority of Texas agriculturalists are profiting by the time- and labor-saving advantages of the latest developments in power farming.

In the same manner, John Deere applies the results of scientific research to farm implement engineering. Design, materials, and methods of fabrication are constantly undergoing change and improvement—toward the end that waste, inefficiency, human drudgery, and high production costs may be successfully overcome throughout agricultural America.
